FOR LOGAN.

My personal and political enemies that are supporting J. R. Thomas in this city, are circulating a report that the anti-Thomas men, the Gazette and myself are against the candidacy of Gen. John A. Logan for Presidency. The report is false. I am for Logan and will be until he is defeated in his nomination. To show that the most friendly feeling exists between Logan and myself I publish the following letter:
UNITED STATES SENATE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 21 1884.
W. T. Scott, Esq.
My DEAR FRIEND—I am in receipt of your esteemed favor of the 17th inst.

I enclose herewith copy of an announcement just issued giving the information you desire.
I feel very much gratified to know that there is such a friendly feeling toward me by the colored people.
Let me assure you that I appreciate your friendship, and to say that I hope this may continue for all time. Will be pleased to hear from you often.
With regards, I am very truly
Your friend,
JOHN A. LOGAN.

While in Washington as a member of the Colored National Executive Committee I thoroughly canvassed the sentiment of that committee and found it largely in favor of Logan. I am in favor of a solid delegation from this state for John A. Logan.
Respectfully,
W. T. SCOTT.

CLARA AND LOUISE ENDORSED.

There has been a serial of letters running in the Washington BEE, a paper edited by Mr. W. C. Chase, a rising young journalist, showing up the differences between the past and present. The letters of "Clara," and "Louise," in this paper are real food for the thought as to whether there is retrogression or progression in the matter of good society, Washington Correspondent of the Living Way.
Mr. James Myers will lead to the altar, on or about the first or second of May, Miss Fannie Hudnell, of this city.

THE ORIGINAL AMATEURS.

The original Amateur Glee Club, that has distinguished itself in years gone by, is to make its appearance soon with some of our very best musical talent, on or about May 2nd, at Lincoln Hall. This celebrated club will be assisted by Miss Amelia L. Tilghman, and Madame Agnes Smallwood, Messrs. Hamillcar Turleigh, James Smith, J. H. Butler, and many others, of the local talent will participate in this grand musical affair. The record of this club is too well known for any extensive comment, but suffice it to know that our citizens will be entertained handsomely when this concert takes place. Give our celebrated amateurs your support.

THE PROMENADE RECEPTION.

The Mount Vernon Royal Arch Chapter, No. 1, will give a grand reception, April 16th, at the Armory of the Washington Cadets. This will be the first reception that has been given by this popular organization. Our popular and enterprising citizen, Mr. William M. Ellis, who is known for his congeniality, P. H. and Arthur Simmons, J. A. Johnson, John T. Costin, Nathan Addison, C. H. Jones, A. Payne, C. A. Stewart, Sr., and other well known gentlemen of this community have this affair in charge, which most undoubtedly, will be a success. Remember the date April 16th, at the Cadets Hall.

The most enterprising musical director is Capt. Fleetwood.

Mr. A. Hall will probably sing with the amateurs.

Rev. J. C. Price, of Salisbury, N. C., will speak in this city at the Congregational church on the 23rd day of the present month. Rev. Mr. Price is a polished orator and one of the rising young men of the South.

Miss A. V. McCabe, our popular, well known and talented vocalist, is quite sick with a severe cold. It is hoped that she will soon recover.

The Orpheus Glee Club is going through a thorough course of musical training under Prof. Kimball.

The prizes that were given out last week at the Cadet's Armory, were numerous and valuable.

WE SHALL SUPPORT CHASE

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2, '84.
ED. BEE:
Sir, Please allow me space in your valuable paper, for the purpose of endorsing the cause of Mr. W. Calvin Chase, and the defense that he has made for the young men of this city. He is indeed advocating home interests and the welfare of the citizens of Washington. He has many friends and admirers and many enemies. I now sir, speak the sentiments of thousands in the District of Columbia. There was a meeting held in the 9th district on last Wednesday night, or rather a kind of a banquet, in opposition to our young leader. This was given by men whom he has made, but these men to-day are opposing him. There were only five men at the banquet and two of them were friends to the cause in which he is engaged and will support him first, last and all the time. We are all for Chase.
Very respectfully,
ONE OF THE INVITED.

Mr. Pledger, the alleged leader of the Georgia Republicans had to take a back seat. He felt in his pocket for the delegation from his state, which he represented that he had while here but he went out walking the other morning and lost the whole delegation.
Madame Agnes Smallwood and Miss A. L. Tilghman will soon appear before the public with the popular amateur Glee Club.

The reasons that Mr. John F. Cook gives for wanting to go to the next convention are: 1st. He has been vilified; 2nd. It will be a vindication for him.
The reasons that the BEE have for opposing him: 1st. He is a figure-head and always has been. 2nd. He has used the District Negroes long enough to satisfy his own ambition. 3rd. He has no use for the Negro after he has used him. 4th. He has practiced nepotism in office. 5th. He will spend $1,000 to keep his position as collector of taxes, and by his election as a delegate to the Chicago convention will do the business. There was a time when Mr. Cook could help his friends; there was a time when he had it in his power to look after home interest, but no, Mr. Cook had to look after somebody else's. We are very sorry for Mr. Cook, and cannot do him any good. The time has come which has enabled us to remember.

The paper was discussed by Hon. Frederick Douglass and others.

Please leave your subscription at home for our collector.

Everybody pays their subscription by you.

Wanted A live and reliable agent in every district of Washington, to canvass for the BEE. Call and learn the terms to agents. We want three thousand new subscribers for 1884.
